

Team Mom Network

What is the Team Mom Network?

As it's name indicates the Team Mom Network is an organized group of the HPL Team Moms. It's purpose is to provide a medium for coordination of HPL Team Moms which will better enable them to provide the best team mom services to the HPL teams they support.

Why is this needed?

Many Team Moms are new to this job and so don't know what to do. There is currently not any way for them to find out other than simply asking around. This can result in frustration on everyone's part.

What does a Team Mom do?

A Team Mom's importance cannot be overstated. Most don't realize how critical the role is to a successful season. She/He works quietly behind the scenes coordinating all the non-game activities that we've come to expect happen automatically. Some examples are, refreshments after each game, team pictures, team party, trophies, collecting the funds for all this, and of course being the heart of all team communications.

Can a Dad be a Team Mom?

Of Course! This is not uncommon and not one of them has ever sued to change the official designation to "Team Person". Seriously, Dads are as welcome as Moms.

How do I become a Team Mom?

Fill out the form below and return it to the sport president or any HPL board member. It will be forwarded to the coach of the team your child gets placed on.

Player's name: _____ Age: _____ Birth Date: _____

Sport: _____ Your name: _____

Home Phone: _____ Cell Phone: _____ Email: _____

Do you have any Team Mom experience? _____

Would you be interested in being the Team Mom Director? _____

List any other comments or suggestions you have: _____
