To Whom It May Concern:

The D'Iberville Futbol Club (DFC) provides soccer program that are age-appropriate and support physical and social development. DFC strives to encourage passion and enthusiasm for the game of soccer and to promote respect for teammates, opponents, coaches, referees, fans, and self. DFC is also committed to ongoing training and development for its coaches and referees as a means to promote, foster, and perpetuate the growth of soccer and further enhance the soccer experience in D'Iberville, Mississippi.

The organization currently provides playing opportunities for children ages 3-19. In order to facilitate play, expenses such as tournament costs, equipment, licensed coaches, insurance, and securing and maintaining soccer fields must be met. We are grateful for all who consider helping our players or teams by contributing to the success of this organization. Any monies, services, supplies, or equipment donated will go directly to lowering the overall cost for players and families.
