The essential elements of character building and ethics in sports are embodied in the concept of sportsmanship and six core principles: trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and good citizenship. As a parent, I therefore agree:

- 1) I will remember that children participate to have fun and that the game is for youth, not adults.
- 2) I will learn the rules of the game and the policies of the league.
- 3) I (and my guests) will be a positive role model for my child and encourage sportsmanship by showing respect and courtesy.
- 4) I (and my guests) will demonstrate positive support for all players, coaches, officials and spectators at every game and practice.
- 5) I (and my guests) will not engage in any kind of unsportsmanlike conduct, foul language, sexual harassment or sexual misconduct with any official, coach, player, or parent, including such tactics such as booing or taunting, in person or on any social media (i.e. face book, internet etc.).
- 6) I will teach my child to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence.
- 7) I will demand that my child treat other players, coaches, officials and spectators with respect regardless of race, sex, creed or ability.
- 8) I will praise my child for competing fairly and trying hard, and make my child feel like a winner every time.
- 9) I will never ridicule or yell at my child or other participant for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- 10) I will promote the emotional and physical well-being of the athletes ahead of any personal desire I may have for my child to win.
- 11) I will respect the officials, game administrators and their authority before, during and after games.
- 12) I will never question, discuss, or confront coaches at the game – either during or after the game.
- 13) I will demand a sports environment for my child that is free from drugs, tobacco, and alcohol and I will refrain from their use at all sports events.
- 14) I will refrain from coaching my child or other players during games and practices, unless I am one of the official coaches of the team.
- 15) I understand that if I am not a respectful fan that my child's right to play in the CTYFL could be at risk of expulsion for the season and that my towns league could be heavily fined.

*I agree that if I fail to abide by the aforementioned rules and guidelines at all practices, games, & other CYF events, I will be subject to disciplinary action that could include, but is not limited to, parental suspension from league events.
