

Team Pride!

Players should wear complete uniform to each game throughout the season and tournaments.

When layering for chilly weather the best way is light layers that are tight fitting for easier movement. Complete uniform over the top. Knit headband also acceptable as are gloves. Sweatshirts and pants are cumbersome for players - but fine for the cheering fans and coaches!

Teams look great when dressed as a team!

