Minor Little League Tournament To Open

San Marino battles East Pasadena and West Altadena takes on Southwest Pasadena Saturday to open the 1976 Pasadena City Minors Little League baseball tournament at Loma Alta Park in Altadena.

The champions from ten Minor Leagues in the Pasadena area will battle for the championship of the annual tournament, which always follows the City Majors tourney.

First-round play in the single-elimination event will be completed Tuesday with semifinal games Wednesday and Thursday. The title game will be played Saturday, July 17.

First Round Pairings

Saturday: West Altadena vs. Southwest Pasadena, 5 p.m.; San Marino vs. East Pasadena, 7 p.m.
Monday: Sierra Madre vs. Pasadena American, 5:30 p.m.

SW Pasadena Trips West Altadena, 10-2

Byron Williams threw a four-hitter, but it wasn't good enough as Southwest Pasadena took advantage of opposition misques to score six runs in the fifth inning and romp to a 10-2 victory over West Altadena in Saturday's opener of the Pasadena City Little League Minors Tournament at Loma Alta Park in Altadena.

In a second game Saturday, East Pasadena exploded for six runs in the bottom half of the last inning to nip San Marino, 15-14.

The single elimination tournament continues Monday when Sierra Madre and Pasadena American tangle at 5:30 p.m. That will be followed, again at Alta Loma Park, by Central Pasadena and East Altadena at 7:30 p.m.

Tuesday: Central Altadena vs. West Pasadena, 5:30 p.m.; San Marino-East Pasadena winner vs. West Altadena-Southwest Pasadena winner, 7:30 p.m.

All games are at Loma Alta Park, 3350 N. Lincoln Ave., Altadena.

East Altadena Cops Minor Title, 13-12

Robert Koehler banged three hits, including the game winning single in the bottom of the sixth inning, to lead East Altadena to a 13-12, come-from-behind victory over West Pasadena in the finals of the Pasadena City Minor Little League tournament Saturday at Loma Alta Park.

East Altadena trailed by six, 12-7, going into the bot-

Underlee Sparkles For East Altadena

Robert Underlee may be in the minors, but don't try to tell Central Altadena players that he's a minor league pitcher.

Underlee struck out 14 batters in six innings enroute to a two-hitter that allowed East Altadena to knock off Central, 5-0, in Monday night first-round action of the Pasadena City Minor Little League Tournament.

In another Monday evening contest, Pasadena American nipped Sierra Madre, 15-14. Today's action has West Pasadena and Central Altadena tangling at 5:30, with Southwest Pasadena and East Pasadena following at 7:30. All games are at Loma Alta Park in Altadena.

Pasadena American scored eight runs in the fourth inning, rallying from a 14-4 deficit.

W. Pasadena Rally Drops SW Pasadena

West Pasadena scored all its runs in the last two innings and came from behind to down Southwest Pasadena, 8-7, Thursday in the semifinals of the Pasadena City Little League Minors baseball tournament at Loma Alta Park.

The victory earned for West Pasadena the right to meet East Altadena Saturday for the tourney championship Saturday at 5:30 p.m. at Loma Alta Park.

Southwest jumped out to a quick five-run lead, but West Tied the score with a five-run uprising in the fifth, sparked by a triple by James Davis and a two-run triple by Ed Davis.

Catcher Steve Riales, who had two RBI, drove in the winning run to cap a three-run sixth for West.
