

Arcadia National Little League
Coaches Code of Conduct

Coaching a youth sport program such as Little League Baseball is a privilege that is not to be taken for granted. As a coach, appointed by the Arcadia National Little League (ANLL) Board of Directors, you have an important role in the development of the young children in the community. Our goal is to teach each child the positive values of good sportsmanship, fair play, and teamwork – values they can use throughout their lives. To ensure each coach is acting in the best interest of all the children and Little League Baseball, the ANLL Board has developed a Coaches Code of Conduct for interactions with players, parents, fans, coaches, and umpires.

1) Players – When there are interactions with players, appropriate language and behavior is expected.

a. Language - At no time is cursing or yelling at a player acceptable. As a coach you are a mentor and should focus on the positive. A coach should always be looking for opportunities to praise and encourage the players.

b. Discipline – At no time is physical discipline of a player acceptable. At the beginning of the season, coaches are encouraged to establish and communicate rules of acceptable behavior to players and parents, and the consequences if not followed. Coaches have a variety of discipline measures at their disposal including restriction to the dugout, dismissal from practice or games, and, with approval of the ANLL Board of Directors, dismissal from the team. (Coaches are responsible for supervision of the child until the parents arrive at the field.) If a coach wishes to discipline his/her own child, he/she is expected to do so privately.

2) Parents / Fans – Coaches are expected to interact with parents in a professional manner. Appropriate language and behavior are expected. At no time should a coach respond to comments from fans during a game.

3) Coaches – Coaches are expected to interact with opposing coaches in a professional manner. At no time should a coach yell from one dugout to another at an opposing coach. Coaches are to address other coaches between innings and with the umpire present. If the need arises to address an opposing coach before the end of the half inning, the coach should ask the umpire to call timeout to address the opposing coach at home plate.

4) Umpires – Coaches are expected to interact with umpires in a professional manner. At no time should a coach yell from the dugout, 1st base coaches' box, or 3rd base coaches' box to an umpire. Coaches are to address the umpires between innings with the umpire's permission. If the need arises to address an umpire before the end of the half inning, the coach should call a timeout and request permission to address the umpire at home plate. If a coach asks for the umpire's permission to discuss a call, the umpire will be more willing to listen. Some of our umpires are middle or high school students. Adult coaches should be mindful of this when interacting with them. (any umpire who is umpiring your game has the authority to throw you out of a game)

5) Drugs, Alcohol, & Tobacco – A coach determined to be under the influence of drugs or alcohol will be asked to leave the field immediately. An infraction of this type will (with approval from the ANLL Board of Directors), result in a termination of all coaching privileges. In addition, the use of tobacco (in any form) is prohibited in any park in town and especially while coaching.

In the event a complaint is received by the ANLL Board of Directors of a coach failing to comply with the above listed code of conduct, the Board may decide to 1) dismiss the case, 2) draft a warning letter or 3) revoke all or part of the coach's privileges.
