

Sponsorship Form

As a valued sponsor of Chino American Little League, your support helps our baseball program reach hundreds of children within our community. We are a non-profit organization, driven by the dedication of community volunteers and supported by local businesses and individuals like you. Your financial contribution is essential in keeping our registration fees low and enabling children who cannot afford the fees to participate. This way, every child has the opportunity to enjoy and learn from the sport of baseball.

Opening ceremonies are scheduled for late February/early March, with the season running through June. Businesses or individuals who participate with the following pledges will receive recognition in various forms:
