NFL Flag Coaches Code of Conduct

- Always remember that kids participate for pleasure & enjoyment. Winning is only part of the fun.
- Never use negative ridicule or yell at children for making a mistake or not winning. Remember, kids will learn from their mistakes. Constructively point out mistakes and what they can do differently.
- Be considerate and reasonable in your demands on the kids time, energy and enthusiasm. Youth sports' is only one part of their busy lives.
- Always operate within the code of conduct, rules and fair spirit of your sport and instruct the kids to do the same.
- Always ensure that the time kids spend with you as coach is a positive experience. All kids are deserving of equal attention and opportunities.
- Avoid overplaying the talented more skillful kids.
- Ensure that sporting equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the age and ability of all players.
- Display control, respect and professionalism to all involved within the sport. This includes opponents, coaches, officials, administrators, parents and other spectators. Encourage players to do the same, be a great role model.
- Always show concern toward sick and injured players. Follow the advice of a trained medical trainer or parents when determining whether an injured child is ready to recommence playing.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any concerns.
