

BEST OF 3 Style:

- Higher seed will be home team in either game one or two and game three if needed.
- The following will be the tie-breaker for the playoffs:
 - Overall record (Percentage)
 - Head to head
 - Division record (Percentage)
 - Average runs against in head to head of teams tied.
 - If more then two teams are tied once a team is eliminated at any stage of tie breaker start over with remaining teams.
- If there is a tie for first after tie breaker, all teams will be declared regular season champion. However a drawing or coin toss will be used to determine seeding.
- If there is a tie for any other position a drawing or coin toss will determine seeding.
- The exception would be a tie for the final spot. In that case a single elimination game or games will be used to determine final seed.
- Rostered players must be at least 50% of their team's game to be eligible for playoffs.
- Home team will provide game balls.
- Home team will pay both umpires. (League will reimburse for one)
- League will schedule umpires.
- Trophies for players and sponsor will be provided for the playoff champion & runner-up.

ALL-STAR GAME(S)

- All-Star game will be played on Saturday or Sunday around mid-season.
- Make-up will be the following Sunday if Saturday game.
- The host team will be picked from a drawing system. All towns in the league at the year of the final team hosts will be drawn and a list will be made. The team on top of list will have first chance to host. Once a team on list hosts or declines they will be removed from the list. If team declines to host next team on list has choice. Any team entering league after list is completed or any team who leaves league are not eligible to host until new list is made. (Must have decision to host by March meeting)
- Host town must pay for umpires and provide drinks for players and coaches after game. (League will pay for one umpire)
- Each town must provide one game ball at the May meeting.
- Number of players per team and team managers will be determined by the Executive Board.
- Continuous batting order.
- Pitchers can pitch two innings (Does not count against them for the week).

NOTE: The Executive Board reserves the right to alter, add, or delete any of the playing rules or general information items.
