ADDITIONALLY, THE FOLLOWING PERMANENT OR TEMPORARY BANS APPLY TO ALL APPLICANTS AND VOLUNTEERS:

A permanent ban would also be required if the person is identified in the Commonwealth child abuse registry as a person who is a perpetrator of a founded report of child abuse "that involved the sexual abuse or exploitation of a child."

A "temporary ten-year ban" would be in effect for a person convicted of a "felony offense of the first, second or third degree" for a crime other than those outlined above where the victim was a child. Also, a felony offense under the Controlled Substance, Drug, Device and Cosmetic Act would subject a person to a 10-year ban on direct involvement with children.

A "temporary five-year ban" would be required when the person has been convicted of a misdemeanor of the first degree for a crime (again other than those outlined in the list above) and the victim was a child. This five year exclusion would also be required if the person was identified as a perpetrator of a founded report of child abuse that was not sexual in nature (i.e., the person was named as a perpetrator of a founded report of physical abuse or neglect). A founded perpetrator status related to sexual abuse requires a lifetime ban.

An employee or volunteer once involved with an organization - post the initial background checks) would have to provide notice, in the future, if they have been "arrested or convicted for an offense that would constitute grounds for denying employment or participating in a program, activity or service under this section." This notice would also be required if they have been named as a "perpetrator in a founded or indicated report of child abuse." The notice to must occur no later than 72 hours "after the arrest, conviction or notification that the person has been listed as a perpetrator of child abuse in the statewide central register."
